Food

You are welcome to bring your own food, ice chests, etc., but please, no glass containers. Vendors will be on hand to provide a wide variety of delicious Blues Food for sale throughout the day right at the concert, and plenty of snacks and lots of different hot and cold drinks will also be available. There are stationary picnic tables seating about 150 people, or you can eat in your chair or on your blanket.

Seating

The facilities include a 4,000-square-foot covered pavilion with a stage. Concert-style seating is available in this area, and there will be room next to the stage for dancing. The pavilion opens up to a 9,000-square-foot lawn with shade trees. The lawn area works well for beach chairs, blankets, playpens, etc.

Other Information

No video or any other type of recording devices, NO PETS, drugs (including alcohol), paraphernalia, or glass containers. Cameras will be permitted but please be respectful of members' anonymity. Merchandise will be available on the day of the event. For more info, call Steve S. at 559-359-1384, Nanci B. at 559-561-4187, Rick T. at 559-786-7008, or Ron N. at 559-734-2821.

Accommodations

The Blues Fest grounds will be open from Friday, May 14, through Sunday, May 16, so you may camp there overnight if you wish. Dry camping only (restrooms are available, but there are no showers). Absolutely no open fires! Parking is available for R.V.'s, but there are no hookups. There are many hotels, motels, and campgrounds in the area, since it is the gateway to Sequoia National Park. A partial list of those near Three Rivers follows. For additional information about accommodations in and around Visalia (about 30 minutes away), call Steve S. at 559-359-1384, Nanci B. at 559-561-4187, Rick T. at 559-786-7008, or Ron N. at 559-734-2821.
